

Community page

WORK BY LUCIENNE AMAN

Show by French watercolorist to open Friday at EKLEKTIKAS II

"Colors being metamorphosed by water, colors running, and light and shadow" are inspiration for Lucienne Aman, a French watercolorist. An exhibition of new work will open Friday at EKLEKTIKAS II, 104 W. Yankee St. in Silver City.

A reception for the artist will be held from 4-7 p.m.

with the artist on hand.

She makes regular trips to Silver City to visit Librado and Bonnie Maldonado.

Aman has studied watercolor technique for more than 10 years with Swiss, French and Canadian masters, according to a press release.

"Her work is full of vibrant color and rich in line," says

Jim Madsen, gallery director, and "we are very excited to have her work."

For more information, see the online exhibition at www.eklekikas.com or call the gallery at 538-8081.

The opening is in conjunction with the Silver City Blues Festival. The show will hang until July 15.